PAJAMA NIGHT WITH THE CITY OF HIALEAH EDUCATION DEPARTMENT!

The Department of Education and Community Services is celebrating National Summer Learning Day with a Creative Learning & Play (CL&P) Pajama Night. Its focus is to highlight what children have been learning in the CL&P Summer Camp this summer.

Parents and children alike will have an opportunity to share a bedtime story, enjoy milk and cookies and browse through the children's work on display. Storybooks will be given away to the first 40 children who bring their favorite stuffed animal to the event. The youngest CL&P participants will recite Dr. Seuss poems while the older ones perform a skit based on their summer learning theme.

Two parent/child pairs will be invited to play the Social Learning and Motivation (SLAM) Game Show. The purpose of this is to give parents a sample of the type of activities their children are exposed to through the Camp's SLAM curriculum, which emphasizes communication, teamwork and leadership.

All are invited to wear their pajamas and partake in CL&P's Summer Learning celebration.

When: Thursday, July 10, 2008, at 7 p.m.

Where: Wilde Community Center, 5405 West 18 Avenue
